Meet the Founder

Mr. Farooq Haque, with 22 years of coaching experience, entered the E-coaching industry in 2014 and since then he's intending to roll out solutions that speak 'Effectiveness, Timeliness, and Reliability'.

The idea of developing an online training platform came from the spark when Mr. Haque analyzed the difficulties faced by the students, professionals, and people across the globe. This spark was enough to design a disruptive model that empowers everyone to embrace technology seamlessly.

Connecting knowledge explorers and proprietors in real-time, he curated this global platform to deliver and manage live and self-paced mentoring with easy-to-use, scalable and cost-effective technology.

Apart from all this, he's a Chartered Accountant by profession and the driving force behind online counseling and coaching platforms viz. He's a man with diversified experience in providing top-quality coaching services to Finance students for more than two decades.

Philosophy: Interactive | Best-in-Class | Consistent

Knowledge has always been the key to unlock the doors to success and Book My Wizard believes in the same. The platform is consistently focusing on relevancy, timeliness, and value of knowledge and moving forward with its quality consulting services worldwide.

The platform is here to alleviate career, enhance lifestyle, and minimize stress with its exclusive knowledge-sharing facilities. With its exceptional and well-crafted premium quality e-training modules, backed by the wizards -it's all set to help people meet their personal and professional goals.

With its knacks to cater to diverse needs of the people, Book My Wizard takes necessary steps to present the sessions and industry-oriented courses, in an easy and interactive way. It's working with a philosophy to spread e-training, urgent support, and advice in such a way that people achieve high distinction in every assignment and presentation they perform.

The platform is built to encourage effective online mentoring, guidance, and quality training with comprehensive assistance and state-of-the-art technologies. Prioritizing a rich on-demand consulting experience, Book My Wizard wants to be a prominent source of advanced learning solutions.

Vision: Impactful | Personalized | Collaborative

Book My Wizard is striving with a vision to create impactful learning opportunities for everyone with its one-to-one consulting methodologies. It wants to overcome conventional training solutions and be a host of personalized e-consulting experience.

Consulting, mentoring, and training are the three broad elements through which we intend to design user-centric online solutions. The platform offers high-quality online sessions and ensures that hand-picked training is available to all. On the other hand, it focuses on providing professionals with the right answers on industry-specific skill sets and courses.

The idea is to build a highly user-interactive platform that is affordable and accessible to everyone. It's putting its best foot forward in offering web-based learning – to-the-point, useful, time-saving and relevant.

The platform is on a mission to bridge the gap between learners and learned with its one-to-one e-learning sessions. Customized interactive solutions have become the need of the hour and introducing people to these solutions is a serious business at Book My Wizard.

Acknowledging responsive mentoring as one of the significant factors of human intelligence, it's continuously endeavoring to meet communal requirements with all-inclusive online sessions.

The platform is stirring collaborative training with its exhaustive online features and creating a learning environment full of satisfaction, talent, flexibility, and distinction.
